

LIQUOR DEPARTMENT: Evo Orsi, above, manages this colorful department in the new Magic Chef Market. Here are found fine wines, liquors, and cordials from all over the world: flowery white wines from Germany, full-bodied red wines from the chateau country of France, mellow sherries from Spain, rich cherry cordials from Denmark; great whiskeys from Ireland, from Scotland, from Kentucky; the justly famous wines of California's own vintners. Magic Chef has set off the beautifully shaped bottles and their glowing contents in a jewel-box setting of rich metallic gold wallpaper, crimson mosaic tiles from Italy, an ingeniously designed wine rack designed and built for Magic Chef in handsome pecky cypress, elegant shelves of brass, glass, and gold-flecked plastic. Evo Orsi and his assistants in the Magic Chef Liquor Department, all graduates of the California Wine Institute, are experts on the use and selection of wine and are always pleased to help and advise customers.

SELECTION. View of one wall of Magic Chef Liquor Department shows a sampling of the thousands of different items available for choice of Magic Chef customers. Magic Chef representatives comb nearly every country of the world to find the finest wines, beers, and liquors. Free-standing shelves shown here are an innovation in super markets, as is the washable gold damask wallpaper used to set off the tawny tones of the beverages on display.

MAGIC CHEF RESTAURANT. Famed Chef Jerry Mehinan is head man in the Magic Chef Restaurant and Gourmet Department. The big sixty-seat restaurant will serve three delicious and hearty meals each day from menus full of such intriguing specialties as the sandwich-and-a-half on the luncheon menu—three halves, one pastrami, one salami, and one corned beef, for people with bigger-than-one, smaller-than-two appetites; the magnificent borscht with sour cream; and six different kinds of chicken soup. Plus bacon-and-eggs-and-everything breakfasts and full-course dinners, besides many other selections ranging from fragrant, steaming coffee to rich, creamy cheesecake. Next to the Magic Chef Restaurant is the market's Gourmet Center, which sells many exotic delicacies as well as restaurant specialties ready-cooked to take home.
